Mr. Moo Cow Moos Again

I woke up ready for adventure. (I'm always ready for adventure!) I popped into base camp to grab Kiwi, but what I saw stopped me in my tracks.

Kiwi sat on the floor of the tree house. His shoulders slumped. His eyes watered. He did NOT look adventure-ready. I asked what was wrong, and he pointed to Mr. Moo Cow, his favorite sleeping toy. Mr. Moo Cow usually makes Kiwi really happy. He walks, talks, chops, hugs, kicks, and even says, "moo-yah." After a long, hard day of exploring or discovering important artifacts, Kiwi often pushes the "on" button and giggles as he watches Mr. Moo Cow waddle across our tree house.

Not today. Today when Kiwi pushed the button, nothing happened. Were Mr. Moo

Remember Verse

For the LORD is the great God,
the great King above all gods.
In his hand are the depths of the earth, and the mountain peaks belong to him. The sea is his,
for he made it, and his hands formed the dry land.

Psalms 95:3-5 (NIV)

What's That Word?

__ru__pe__: An instrument that plays music. In Bible times, it was played to start important parties. The whole world will hear it when Jesus comes to take us to heaven with Him.

P__l__ S__nd__: The Sunday before Easter. We celebrate King Jesus just like the people did when He rode a donkey through Jerusalem. Read about the parade in Matthew 21:1-11 and celebrate Jesus as your King!

Eureka! Bible Passage: John 11:1-45

A. Jesus was friends with a man named Lazarus and his sisters, Mary and Martha. They lived in the village of Bethany. Lazarus got sick, so his sisters sent a message to Jesus to tell Him.

When Jesus received their message, He said, "This will not end in death. It will be for God's glory."

B. Jesus loved Lazarus and his sisters, but He waited two days after He got their message before He left to visit them. When Jesus arrived, Lazarus had already died and been buried for four days.

C. Martha came to meet Jesus. She said, "Lord, I wish you had come sooner! You could have kept my brother alive, but I know God will still give you whatever you ask for."

D. "I am the resurrection and the life," Jesus said. "Everyone who believes in me will never die. Do you believe that?"

"Yes," Martha answered, "I believe you are the Son of God."

E. Then Mary came to Jesus. She said, "Lord, you could have kept my brother alive." When Jesus saw her crying, He was sad and He wept.

They led Jesus to Lazarus's tomb. He told them to roll the stone away from the entrance.

F. Jesus prayed, and then He shouted, "Lazarus, come out!" Lazarus came out, wrapped in the clothes he was buried in.

When people saw what Jesus did, they believed in Him.

Record Your Discovery!

Draw something to help you remember what you've discovered in the passage.

Kiwi buried 6 words from the Remember Verse in the Bible picture. Can you find them? Niki used a word from the Eureka! Bible Passage in her journal. Can you find that too?

Cow's mooing days over?

I wiggled some wires, tightened some gears, and checked the batteries. That's when I found the problem. The batteries were dead. Kiwi wailed when he heard the news.

I tried to tell him it would be okay. Mr. Moo Cow just needed new batteries, but Kiwi was too upset to listen. Talking would not help. So I just got to work. I pulled a new pack of quadruple J batteries out of my Knackisack Belt. I popped out the old ones and popped in the new. I pointed Mr. Moo Cow toward Kiwi who was still crying and karate-chopping the air. Mr. Moo Cow waddled right over to him and said "moo-yah."

Kiwi jumped up. "It's a miracle!" he shouted. "A resurrection! Mr. Moo Cow was dead, and now he is alive again."

Well, I knew it was just Mr. Moo Cow's batteries that had died. But did that matter? Kiwi had Mr. Moo Cow back. And I had a sidekick who was ready for adventure!
